

This morning's keynote speaker is currently #5 on the list of Leadership experts to follow online, and is a best-selling author with more than 18 published books on entrepreneurship and leadership topics. She recently signed contracts to host a network TV show in development.

In 2011, Elizabeth was awarded the U.S. Congressional Veteran Commendation.

As an Army Black Hawk Pilot Elizabeth McCormick flew command and control, air assault, rappelling, and top-secret intelligence missions, and also transported high level government VIPs including the Secretary of Defense.

Please hold your applause as We see these missions, Elizabeth and the awe-inspiring Black Hawk in action....

(DIM house lights- leave stage – slowly bring house lights back up when screen goes dark after video)